We got by

Mr.

with a little help from me friends.

Mr.
Morss

"If a picture paints a thousand words . . ."

"Here we go again . . ."

"I can't see nobody"

People live from day to day but they do not count the time.
They don't see their days slipping by and neither do I.

James Taylor

"Get back Loretta"

"Who do I turn to . . ."

"So happy together"

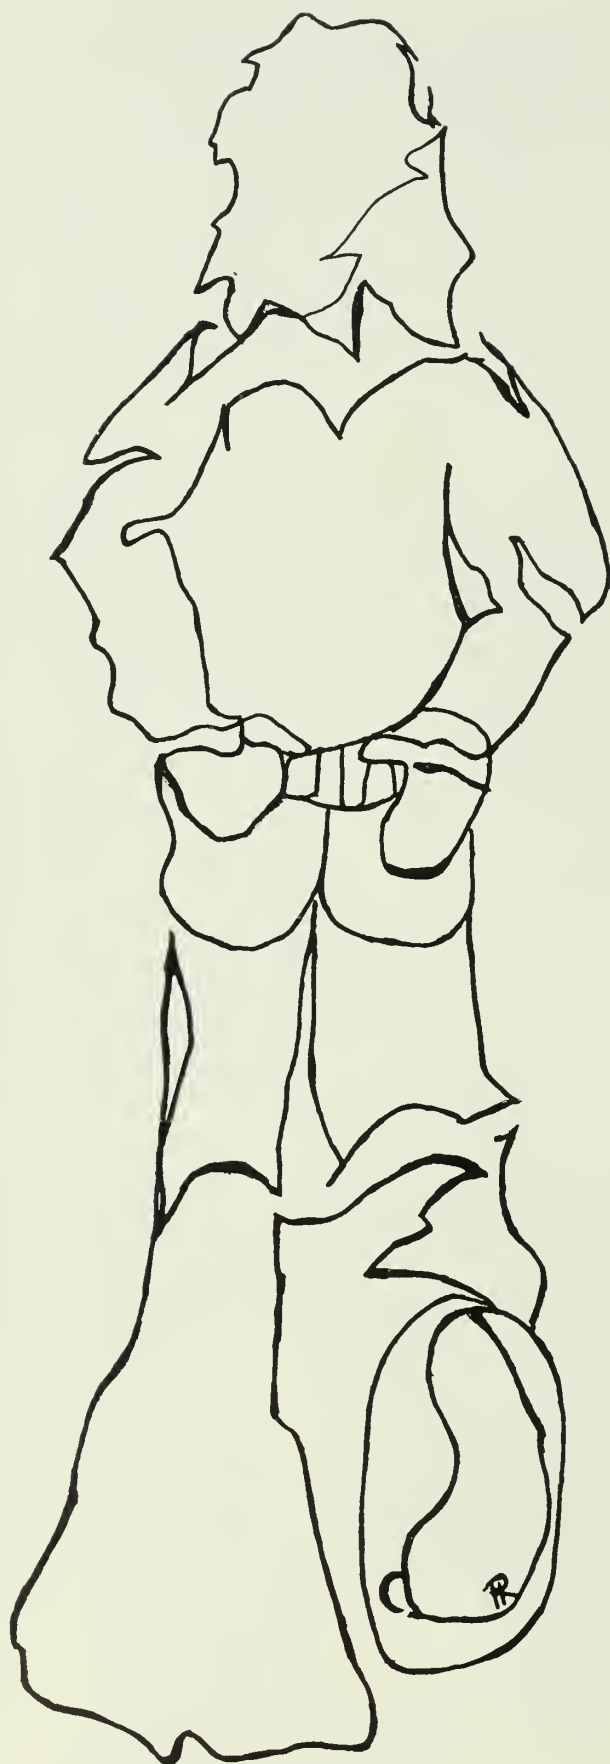

Jeff (a little late)

Know you got to run
Know you got to hide
Don't know who to follow
Who is on your side

Don't know where you goin'
Don't know where you been
And I may see you tomorrow
Never more again

The Day I'll Never Forget

I had a day when everything seemed to be fine
I rose that morning, sunshine
filled my mind
i drove to a place where the land
met the sea
Saw an old friend who called out to me
We sat and talked of things gone past
Something troubled him, he told me at last
He described his new life suspended in air . . .
Spoke of a dependence on a white crystalline powder without a care
I suggested ways of help and offered him a place to stay
But he said, "I can't involve you," turned, and walked away
The day had ended and was not fine
I returned home, a thunderstorm
filled my mind.

ECOLOGY SONG

Fortunes of time making up rhyme
How do we save tomorrow
Given a voice can you make a choice
Is it black, is it grey, is it yellow

All this crying, while the earth is dying
It's a shock they won't stop because of money
America is lost, figurin' the cost
You hang your head in shame
it's disgusting.

Mother nature made it green
Prettiest place you've seen
People don't know what they need
Open your window
What do you see
Do you remember
How it used to be

HERE TODAY GONE TOMORROW

God knows you've got to give yourself time to think these days,
Lord knows you've got to take the time to look both ways,
the pieces fly by so quickly nowadays.

James Taylor
